

HR Sportsmen Hear Van Bellehem Talk

By MARY and JACK WEBB
FR 5-3051

At the last meeting of the Riviera Sportsmen, held at the Sportsmen's Den at the Hollywood Riviera Beach Club, Harry Van Bellehem, Torrance Recreation Director, spoke on the improvements of parks and recreation facilities in this area. High on the agenda also was a discussion on the placement of Fourth of July fireworks stands, in similar manner to the fireworks project of the club last year. Proceeds go entirely to the various youth projects sponsored by the Sportsmen. Jim Greer, vice-president, conducted the meeting in the absence of Louis Regan, president of the organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Connelly, 115 Via El Chico, held a birthday party for their daughter, Mary Jo, to help her celebrate the occasion. Highlight of the party was a treasure hunt wherein all the guests hunted for peanuts, eggs and other favors. Mary Jo celebrated her sixth birthday.

On the more somber side, it seems as though chickenpox, measles and mumps are beginning to rear up again. Mr. and Mrs. Gail Knapp, 121 Via El Chico, report their son Steve had a case of the chickenpox as did Mary Jo Connelly and her sister Colleen, 10 months. All three children of the Austin Sandersons, 433 Calle Mayor, came down with the same—Glen, 7, Dean 5, and Janice 2. Over at 420 Via Los Miradores, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Moulton have their hands full with mumps running through the family. Little Cathy, 5, is over them, but Scott, 3½, is playing hooky at this writing, with Ricky, 2½, expected to come down with them any day.

Mr. Robert L. Erickson and son Bobby, 5, arrived in Riviera from Hawaii on April 29, to spend most of their summer here. They're visiting her sister and family. Mr. and Mrs. Gail Knapp, 121 Via El Chico, Mrs. Erickson was in Hawaii for two years, while her husband was stationed there with the Navy. He's now on duty on an Alaskan patrol for six months, in his work of photography.

Mrs. Herschel Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Showalter, 228 Via Alameda, arrived on April 29 to spend the summer months with her parents. Her husband is now in the Army, stationed in Alabama undergoing schooling. He joined his wife here on an 11-day furlough, after completing his basic training in Texas and prior to going to the Alabama school. His wife, the former Jackie Showalter, will remain here until he completes his training and is sent to a permanent duty station.

CORRECTION: Due to a typographical error, it was reported erroneously that Riviera PTA collected $285 as proceeds from their El Retiro Park carnival. The correct figure was $325.

The Society of Women Engineers, Los Angeles District, held their regular monthly meeting at Taix French Restaurant last week, reports Mrs. S. A. Broughton, 106 Via Sevilla. Mrs. Broughton, a chemical engineer by profession, is corresponding secretary for the organization and editor of their monthly newsletter. Her reports that the meeting was highlighted by a panel discussion on career opportunities for women today, the panel group including Dr. Marianne Hessel, Palos Verdes pediatrician; Miss Helen Sherry, a Hollywood attorney and former Maryland judge; and Miss Agatha Magnus, Pasadena biologist.

Many Rivierans attended the baby shower given May 19 in honor of Nancy Googins Eaton at the home of Mrs. Matt Brunning, 347 Calle de Andalucia. Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Seth Ludwick and Mrs. Brunning.

Pink, blue and white flower arrangements around a large and several small storks highlighted the decorations. Spring fruit salad, nut bread, coffee, minis and nuts were served. Mrs. Brunning reports that individual gifts were presented to Mrs. Eaton inside a group gift of an appropriately decorated baby buggy.

Guests invited to the shower included Mesdames Bill Beckman, Marty Kennedy, Charles Stungill, Chuck Kemmer, Steiner McEhearn, Terry McGovern, Thomas Linahan, George Schneider, Barney Barnett, Jack Byers and Shirley Bolas, all of Hollywood Riviera. Also from Riviera were Misses Laura Lee, Penny Sena and Judy Linahan.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Raymond Googins of Riviera was present, as was her mother-in-law, Mrs. F. D. Eaton of Palos Verdes Estates, together with Misses Ann and Drusilla Eaton, her sisters-in-law. Also on the invitation list were Miss Diane Whittlesey of Palos Verdes Estates and Mrs. Dorothy Hatfield of Rolling Hills, as well as numerous other friends and relatives from Los Angeles and surrounding cities.

Soon to visit Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wood, 444 Calle de Castellana, will be her nephew, Albert H. Wiggins, conductor and composer from New York. Mr. and Mrs. Wood, who have recently completed a month-long vacation, expect the talented musician to arrive here the latter part of June. His recent accomplishments include conducting the Long Island Choral Group in Town Hall, and recitals of his own compositions in voice and piano. Mr. Wiggins lists among his accomplishments a performance at Carnegie Hall. He plans to spend his summer vacation with the Woods here in Riviera.

UP HILL, AND DOWN DALE Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Linemeyer, formerly of 148 Calle Mayor, have moved into their new and larger home at 802 Calle Miramar. . . . Maureen Treacy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Treacy, 635 Calle de Arboles, made her first Communion on May 15 at St. James Church. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt Coleman, 286 Calle de Madrid, are entertaining his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Coleman, from Richmond, Ind., who plan to stay about a week. . . . Brian Lineham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lineham, celebrated his eleventh birthday last week with a visit to Wrigley Field with his father to see a doubleheader. . . . Rivierans Will Zens and George Schneider wrapped up their responsibilities as co-chairmen of the immense St. James Church Festival, a whopping success from all reports. . . . And the four performances at Marymount of Palos Verdes given last week-end also go down in the history books as momentous. . . . In the latter were Judy Wurtz, 216 Via la Circula; Patty Scott, 146 Calle de Andalucia; Jack and Jill Webb, 145 Calle de Andalucia; Josie Puets, 620 Paseo de las Estrellas; and Dana Collins, Palos Verdes Apartments. . . .

Mary Mays decorates a scale model of a new type swimming pool, designed to serve a community of 30-40 thousand, which will be shown at the Ninth Annual Los Angeles Home Show June 19-20 at the Pan Pacific. A new engineering feature, worked out to make the usual vacuum cleaning of a pool unnecessary, is the use of jet streams to clean the pool as it drains. The idea was developed by the Los Angeles Department of Recreation and Parks.

Jack Satterlee, 255 Calle de Andalucia, has been made a Girl Scout camp leader. He received his official credentials recently from the Scout Council headquarters in Los Angeles, and assumed his new duties immediately. Two factors led to his appointment as leader. First of course, the girls need the camping experience to qualify as bona fide Girl Scouts, and two, the mothers just didn't like camping out too well. Result—Jack's an official leader, and his wife, a registered nurse, helps him in the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Cunningham, 888 Calle de Arboles, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Sara, to Sgt. James Long of Crawfordville, Ind. Sgt. Long is presently stationed at the Air Force Filter Center in Pasadena. The wedding is planned for June 27 at the First Methodist Church in Redondo Beach.

Election, Prom Fill Week at Gauchoville

By ADRIENNE SIDWELL
This certainly is an exciting week at Gauchoville! Tuesday, Student Body and Girls League elections were held. (The results will be in Sunday's edition of the Torrance Herald). Today, a Junior High track meet will be held. Tomorrow evening will be one of the biggest events of the semester—the Junior-Senior Prom! The prom starts at 8:30 and is scheduled to end at 11:30 p.m. Sal Frisina and his orchestra will entertain in the boys gym with the theme "Orchids in the Moonlight."

There will be no school tomorrow. Ooops! I mean Monday, on account of the Memorial Day holiday. Many Gauchos will start their sun-tanning process.

A group of Narbonne Spanish students went to Gonzalez's Spanish restaurant in Wilmington for a really swell dinner recently. Those seen enjoying themselves in the Banquet Room were Julia Delgado, Jerry Coulter, Mrs. Coulter, Robert Hargrave, Arlene Kohl, Davyne Trimble, Ann Robertson, Beverly Beckett, Eugene Minor, Lila Cordray, Mary Embres, Mr. Johnson, Mrs. Schurman and friend, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Morimoto and daughter, Jack Eckley, Mrs. Hilbert and son and daughter, Rick Eckley, and Faithfully Yours. After the dinner, Mrs. Hilbert showed color slides of Mexico. Everyone echoed that they had a "bueno" time!

At a recent meeting of the Key Club, ten new members were voted into the club. The lucky guys are Tom Boyd, Bryan Jones, Gilbert Pike, Tom Titchener, Fred McLean, Bob Kubo, Bobby Brown, Jim Jeter, Bob Tarango, and Fred Hartman.

Marilyn Brannan, A-12, is Narbonne's newest speed typing champ! She typed 67 words per minute with NO errors. Roberta Wilson scored a sure second rate, Joy Callaway nabbed third with 63 words per minute. Jackie Ventre, who is only in her first year of typing, took fourth place with 61 words per minute.

Craig Chudy was Narbonne's lone track star to place in the home fires while she was away.

Latest venture for Mr. and Mrs. Julius Toth, 134 Via Alameda, is the imminent opening of their new delicatessen at 1815½ S. Catalina in Hollywood Riviera. It will be named "The Troft," they say, and will feature fine delicacies and quality foods. Mrs. Toth added that they plan a patio in the back for dining, as well as specializing in take-out foods. Any Rivieran who has enjoyed Mrs. Toth's flair for Hungarian cooked foods will await impatiently the opening of her new venture. Her many neighbors wish her the best of good fortune.

RARE EARTH Rare earth is a chemical term used to denote a group of certain metals which occur in close association in some rare minerals. . . .

Mr. C. Gail McCall, 705 Calle de Arboles, flew back to Afton, Ia., on April 23, and returned to Riviera on May 20. Her father passed away of a heart attack there, and she was called home to assist in the many duties that befall the family. Mr. McCall and son Roger tended

City track finals last Friday evening. Chudy was second in the 120 high hurdles and fourth in the 180 low hurdles. He will go on to the state finals. Tommy Robins, who qualified in the semis, failed to place in the 440 finals.

A group of Bill Brocklesby's friends held a birthday party for him last Saturday evening. Those there to help him celebrate were Pat Taylor, Davyne Trimble, Jean Wetzell, Mary Hathaway, Jerry Coulter, Mike McGee, Rick Eckley, Arlene Kohl, Mary Jean Harker, and the honoree, Bill.

Janet Ford won the sweepstakes at the PTA Flower Show last week. There were a lot of beautiful flowers, which were being displayed in the library. Both student and adult prizes were given.

Last Saturday evening, Lavonna Connor and Nancy Maxwell joined at Sharon Thomas' home for a slumber party. The girls reported that they had a wonderful slumberless time!

Narbonne's A Cappella Choir went to the Southern California Vocal Association Festival at Leuzinger High School last Friday evening. There were more than five schools represented. From all rumors, Narbonne received a good rating. Good going, kids!

Mrs. Louella Maxwell, Nancy's mother, was married last Saturday to Mr. Charles Brennan at the Western Baptist Church. Narbonne students who helped at the wedding were: Audrian Rozendal, Mary Myers, Beverly Fosberg, Sharon Thomas, and Nancy. Bob Holmes' mother baked the wedding cake.

The Kiwanis Club gave a hilarious comedy, "The Time of Your Life," last Thursday evening, for the purpose of raising funds for blind and disabled children. Everyone will agree that the show was a tremendous success.

Nancy Maxwell, B-11 and Geraldine Daniels, B-8, won the American Legion essay contest for senior and junior high respectively.

Gary Hinrichs won $15 by placing first in the American Legion paper poster contest. Gary placed first in both the school and district contest! Elsie Rothenburg, who won second place, grabbed herself nine dollars. For the junior high division, Sally Gonzales snatched first place and five dollars.

A week from tomorrow is the Senior GAA Banquet. The theme is "Anywhere We Wander" and tickets for chicken pie or tuna pie dinners will be sold for $1.50. The elections for GAA officers will be next Wednesday. A really swell program is being planned.
